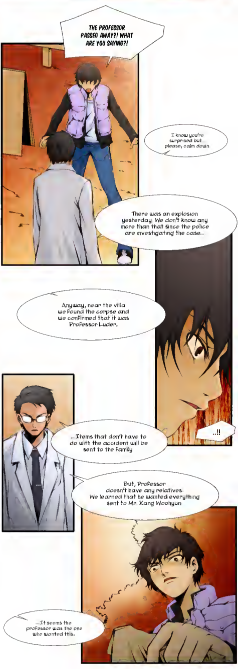
Th-That's...
HOSPITAL
W-What are you saying?



THE PROFESSOR PASSED AWAY?! WHAT ARE YOU SAYING?!
I know you're surprised but please, calm down
There was an explosion yesterday. We don't know any more than that since the police are investigating the case...
Anyway, near the villa we found the corpse and we confirmed that it was Professor Luder.
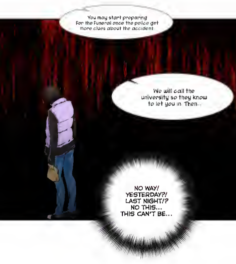
...Items that don't have to do with the accident will be sent to the family
But, Professor doesn't have any relatives. We learned that he wanted everything sent to Mr. Kang Woohyun.
...It seems the professor was the one who wanted this.



You may start preparing for the funeral once the police get more clues about the accident
We will call the university so they know to let you in. Then...
NO WAY! YESTERDAY?! LAST NIGHT!? NO THIS... THIS CAN'T BE...

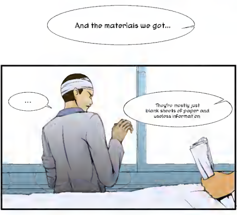
nod
..
press



And the materials we got...
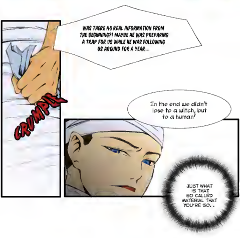
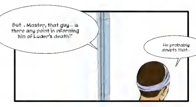
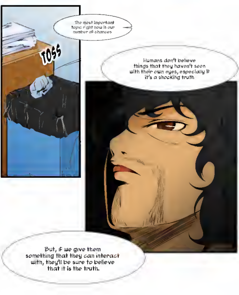
They're mostly just blank sheets of paper and useless information.



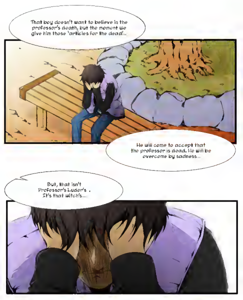
WAS THERE NO REAL INFORMATION FROM THE BEGINNING?! MAYBE HE WAS PREPARING A TRAP FOR US WHILE HE WAS FOLLOWING US AROUND FOR A YEAR...
CRUMPLE
In the end we didn't lose to a witch, but to a human!
JUST WHAT IS THAT SO CALLED MATERIAL THAT YOU'RE SO..



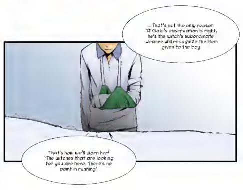
But.. Master, that guy... is there any point in informing him of Luder's death?
He probably doubts that...



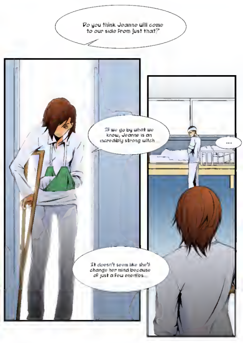
The most important topic right now is our number of chances
TOSS
Humans don't believe things that they haven't seen with their own eyes, especially if it's a shocking truth.
But, if we give them something that they can interact with, they'll be sure to believe that it is the truth.



That boy doesn't want to believe in the professor's death, but the moment we give him those 'articles for the dead'...
He will come to accept that the professor is dead. He will be overcome by sadness...
But, that isn't Professor's Luder's . It's that witch's...



...That's not the only reason If Gale's observation is right, he's the witch's subordinate Jeanne will recognize the item given to the boy
That's how we'll warn her' 'The witches that are looking for you are here. There's no point in running'



Do you think Jeanne will come to our side from just that?
If we go by what we know, Jeanne is an incredibly strong witch
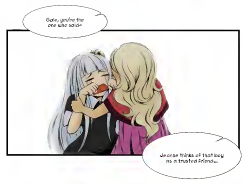
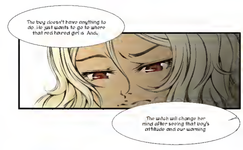
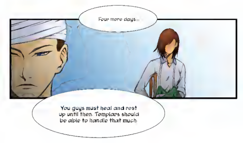
It doesn't seem like she'll change her mind because of just a few enemies...



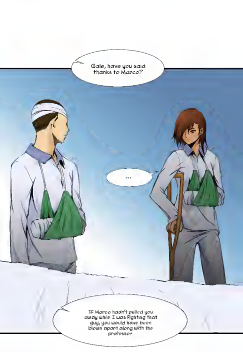
Gale, you're the one who said-
Jeanne thinks of that boy as a trusted friend...



The boy doesn't have anything to do. He just wants to go to where that red haired girl is. And,
The witch will change her mind after seeing that boy's attitude and our warning



Four more days...
You guys must heal and rest up until then. Templars should be able to handle that much



Gale, have you said thanks to Marco?
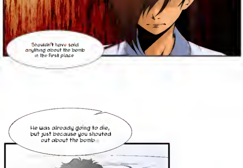
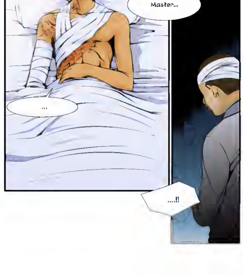
If Marco hadn't pulled you away while I was fighting that guy, you would have been blown apart along with the professor



You...
Shouldn't have said anything about the bomb in the first place



He was already going to die, but just because you shouted out about the bomb...
Master...

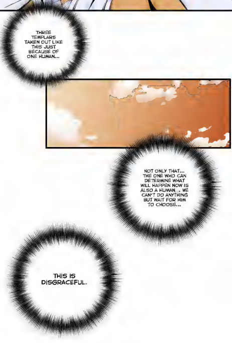
You idiot!
You really think this'll affect me? You think these small scratches are going to change anything?!
It's too early to give you positions.
One of you can't lift his head up, even when he's done something good. The other one blames others for not being to complete their own work...
You're pissing me off, so go back to your rooms



THREE TEMPLARS TAKEN OUT LIKE THIS JUST BECAUSE OF ONE HUMAN...
NOT ONLY THAT... THE ONE WHO CAN DETERMINE WHAT WILL HAPPEN NOW IS ALSO A HUMAN... WE CAN'T DO ANYTHING BUT WAIT FOR HIM TO CHOOSE...
THIS IS DISGRACEFUL.
